

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We used to be overloaded with unwanted telemarketing calls, and our time at home has improved dramatically.